

Stars

are huge, glowing balls of gases. The star closest to earth is the sun. Stars are very far away. Most of the pinpricks of light in the night sky are stars.

A constellation

is a group of stars that is named according to the pattern people have seen in it. Like the constellation Leo looks like a lion.

Visibility
is the ability to see
or be seen.

